City To 'Donate' 6 Acres Of Park For Basin School

Daly City council agreed Wednesday night to "donate" 6.4 acres of its Westlake park to the Jefferson Elementary School district.

The land would be used by the school district to augment some eight acres in the Westlake basin site.

In tentatively agreeing to turn land over to the schools, councilmen stipulated that it would only be on a one-year "lease" basis and that no permanent building could be erected on the park land.

The city "donation" would allow the school district to meet minimum state acreage requirements while only purchasing eight acres of land from Henry Doelger Builder Inc., as compared with some 15 to 18 originally sought.

The 6.4 acres of city land would be used jointly with the school district for recreation, since state requires a persentage of school site acreage be set aside for this purpose.

City Manager Howard Stites said a similar arrangement in another city had already been approved by the state allocations board and predicted that there would be no difficulty of securing passage of the local plan, providing it meets with school district approval.

Coup Told To Block SF Protest

A move to stymie San Francisco's protest against acquisition of school site property in that city was revealed Wednesday in a letter to the city council from the Jefferson Elementary School district.

The district asked Daly City to vacate its portion of Hanover street to give the school an extra two acres on which to erect its plant. The road would be graded over and the slope changed slightly to conform to the level of the residential land.

Superintendent H. Z. Weibel said property owners in San Francisco have already agreed to sell their land. This would force a cul de sac on City of San Francisco, which would retain its portion of Hanover street originally sought by the district. But the street would be a dead end jutting into the new school.

Daly City owns approximately two-thirds of Hanover street sought by the district, San Francisco the remaining third.

Supervisors Case Tossed Out Of Court

Grand jury accusations charging five county supervisors and the county manager with "willful misconduct in office" were thrown out yesterday by Superior Judge Aylett Cotton.

The grand jury immediately called a special meeting for next Monday night to discuss the judge's dismissal of the action.

Cotton's ruling said that the accusation and transcript charging supervisors and county manager E. R. Stallings with misconduct for failure to properaly supervise expenditure of road funds "reveal a certain degree of carelessness on the part of the accused." While Cotton indicated that the carelessness "had been continuing for a good period of time," he declared that "the court cannot uphold the accusation on this evidence alone."

No Trial

In sustaining the defendant's motion to dismiss the accusations, Judge Cotton precluded holding of trial on the charges. Had trial been granted and the supervisors and Stallings been found guilty, they would have faced removal from office.

"Reliance by the county supervisors and county manager on the county engineer (M. A. Grant), an elected official, cannot be considered such misconduct as to justify the finding that the testimony in the accusation is sufficient to warrant the matter going to trial," the judge declared in his opinion. Grant is currently facing civil charges brought by the grand jury to obtain some $725,000 in unbudgeted funds spent by Grant for roads in southern San Mateo couhty.

DALY CITY MAN ASKS NAVY PROBE ON SON'S ILLNESS

Youth Discharged Early As 'Okay' Loses 80 Lbs.

A Daly City service station owner and school trustee has demanded his Congressman investigate why the Navy honorably discharged his "seriously ill" son and apparently pronounced him physically fit upon release from the service.

Charging Naval authorities with negligence is Joseph Lewkowitz, 501 Vista Grande, whose son, Charles, 21, is on the "critical" list at St. Joseph's hospital. The youth has lost 80 pounds in the past five months.

Lewkowitz reports his son was discharged on the early-out program at Treasure Island on October 1, following a tour in the Far East aboard the carrier USS Hancock.

According to his father, Charles said he was violently ill before docking in Japan and medical officers dismissed his condition "with a few pills and granted him a few days off work."

Since being stricken the youth dropped from his normal weight of 215 to 135 pounds.

The elder Lewkowitz said the boy's condition was so bad the day after discharge, that a civilian pyhsician was summoned. Charles, a former Jefferson High football player, was rushed to St. Joseph's late last week as an emergency case.

The family doctor today said the boy was improving steadily, although exact nature of the ailment was still not determined after extensive tests. The youth had complained of excessive stomach pains. He has been given several blood transfusions.

Congressman J. Arthur Younger has called 12th Naval District officials for an investigation of the incident.

Shoplifting Trio Jailed By DC Cops

A three-member shoplifting team—two guys and a doll—were foiled here Wednesday afternoon, thanks to an alert store manager.

The petty theft of some $64.24 in items, most of them ladies unmentionables, was stopped by Rudy Wolmuth, manager of Sprouse Reitz, 6400 Mission street.

Wolmuth held the trio, who listed a Turk street hotel as their address, until police arrived. He made a citizen's arrest as the thieves left the store.

Booked were Mardi K. Scott, 19 and unemployed; Robert Kelly, 47, a "carpet layer," and George Greathouse, 32, a "sewing machine mechanic."

Police took 12 pairs of nylons, a vase, and four ladies bras as evidence. These were lifted from the store in a purse and a shopping bag.

In the trio's car, officers found 48 pairs of nylons, two cartons of cigarettes, five shopping bags, and 19 paper sacks.

Inspector John Walsh concluded that the team has been operating for sometime. They were arraigned in municipal court Thursday morning.

'Get Tough On Pedestrians'

A police force of 55 men and stricter pedestrian traffic enforcement were among recommendations submitted to a Daly City traffic safety committee last week by a representative of the National Safety Council.

In a 19-page inventory on Daly City traffic safety activities, Eugene J. Cummins, assistant coordinator of the governor's traffic safety committee, outlined all phases of Daly City vehicle and pedestrian safety. He spoke before a nineman safety committee made up of City Councilman Del Wilson, City Manager Howard Stites, Police Chief Roland Petrocchi, his assistant, Roy McLaren, traffic inspector Henry Sundermann, Walt Brodie, insurance association representative, Postmaster Vincent Murphy, John Mongan and Dennis Huajardo, representing local high and elementary schools, respectively.

6.6 Death Rate

The report noted that while Daly City had five successive years through 1955 without a traffic fatality, there were two deaths ..in ..1956, ..giving ..Daly City a rate of 6.6 deaths per 100,000 population and 1.3 per 10,000 registered vehicles.

Daly City has no traffic fatalities as yet for 1957.

The inventory recommended that for maximum traffic safety, Daly City's police force be increased from the present 33 to 55 men. Observing that one of the city fatalities in 1956 was a pedestrian death, the report also urged stiffer enforcement of pedestrian laws. The Safety Council recommended that "pedestrians be held accountable for dangerous acts just as motorists are, by arrest and for violations.

In almost all phases of traffic safety—compilation of accident records, traffic engineering, traffic supervision, public safety education—Daly City showed a better rating than the average city of its size.

The city was, however, listed as poor in its school traffic safety education.

Adequate Vehicles

While the inventory said Daly City was short of men it indicated that number of vehicles, 11, was above the recommended 8. The report also showed that while the recommended percentage of traffic officers on a police force is 25, Daly City has 48 per cent.

Among the other significant recommendations submitted in the report were:

1. That studies be made to determine justification of prohibiting curb parking on more miles of streets with heavy traffic volumes and the elimination of turning movements at high volume intersections.

2. That a study be made to determine need for replacement of existing traffic signs with new or reconditioned signs.

3. That traffic engineering responsibilities be established by ordinance.

Meter Revenues

4. That parking meter revenues be earmarked for traffic improvement.

5. That all recruits receive traffic training of 50 hours or more and all uniformed officers in service be retrained in traffic, at least 25 hours each, every two years.

6. That more effort be made to apprehend and convict drinking drivers.

Tot 'Hates' School, Cop Offers Advice, Doc Repairs Thumb

"Friendly persuasion" sometimes doesn't pay off, even if you're a policeman.

John Coleman, president of the newly formed DC Police Athletic League, lost out in the role of a good Samaritan Wednesday morning.

A five-year-old student at Colma kindergarten was causing a fuss because he didn't like school. His mother asked Coleman to offer encouragement, knowing how impressive policemen are to youngsters.

During the "little talk" outside the school, Coleman was bitten on the thumb by the urchin. The officer had to go to the hospital for treatment, which included a tetanus shot.

"All in a day's work," he rationalized.

Builder To Ask Westmoor High Completion Pay

Contractor Dick Meyer is expected to report to high school trustees next Monday night, asking them to accept the $2.5 million Westmoor plant as finished.

If the board approves the notice of completion, Meyer will receive the final payment on the job within 30 days.

In all school building contracts, the district withholds 10 per cent of the amount on each payment. This "reserve" is paid to the contract no later than 30 days after the notice of completion is filed.

The district thus has about $250,000 still due the general contractor. At the last board meeting, Architect Mario Ciampi recommended that trustees accept the job as finished but put aside $10,000 of the $250,000 to handle several minor items still to be completed.

Meyer will get a decision next week on his second request for an extension of contract. The board last January gave him 124 extra days to complete the school. He still was unable to deliver the school on June 24 and has indicated he will ask for another extension amounting to about four months.

Official dedication date for Westmoor may be determined at Monday's regular meeting.

300 To Honor Blum At Banquet Tuesday

An estimated 300 people will pay tribute to former city attorney and now Superior Judge Frank Blum Tuesday at a testimonial banquet to be held at Lake Merced Country club.

Municipal Judge Thomas L. Bocci will act as master of ceremonies for the occasion, which starts at 7 p.m.

Chairman Peter J. Markovich said tickets for the event, $7.50 apiece, are already sold out.

Giant Halloween Program Planned For DC Children

The Department of Parks and Recreation will again sponsor a Halloween program throughout the city, Director Dee Van Nest announced today.

The program has been made possible through the joint effort of the recreation department and the Daly City Rotary Club, who have donated money which will be used for prizes for the children, the Jefferson Elementary School District, P.T.A.'s and O.L.P.H. Mother's Club.

The Halloween events will take place at Colma school, Little Jefferson, Garden Village school, Westlake and Olympia school, Woodrow Wilson, Crocker and O.L.P.H. The evening activities will feature variety shows, cartoons, costume parades and community singing. Children participating in the variety show will receive certificates.

All children — kindergarden through the sixth grade—are invited to attend the Halloween program in their area. The program will begin at 7 p.m. and run till 9 p.m.

A special program will be held at the War Memorial building, where all seventh grade students are invited to dance to the Misbehaven Teen Club giant juke box.

NEW DISTRICT OFFICE

Trustees Issue Feeler For Golf Club's Land

The elementary school board is drafting a new inquiry to the Olympic Club for possible purchase of a strip of land paralleling Lake Merced boulevard for a district office.

Supt. H. Z. Weibel urged the board to look into the possibility because the Olympic Club has placed a lower assessment value on the land than the board of supervisors, he said.

The parcel eyed by the board is about 15 acres, but, as pointed out by Asst. Supt. David Shapiro, is inadequate for a school site "due to its distance and transportation problems."

Board chairman Hartley Appleton and Mrs. Katherine Mullen reminded that the new inquiry wouldn't be practical because the Olympic Club previously said it wasn't interested in selling the property.

Mrs. Doris Wimberly suggested the board wait until negotiation with Henry Doelger on the Basin site were ironed out. Doelger failed to attend Wednesday's meeting as scheduled to discuss the basin matter and three south-of-Alemany sites. The builder will meet with the administration this Friday afternoon.

Trustees are drafting what they hope will be a "final" letter to the Zita Corporation on sites in the proposed St. Francis Heights subdivision. Also involved is purchase of the M. Pauline Brown site, currently under condemnation.

The Town Record

By MONTE DAYTON

County Supervisor TOM CALLAN, speaking on the recent grand jury removal from office proceedings for him and five other county officials, said the supervisors were completely innocent of "misconduct" in failure to properly supervise expenditure of road funds, for this reason:

Under an old state law, county supervisors may collect $50 apiece each month as expense money to inspect roads. Since none of the supervisors have ever collected this little stipend, none of them have accepted the responsibility of the road department, says Callan.

Callan, by the way, has just received three committee appointments in the California Supervisors association: fish and game; highways and hospitals.

FRED AVILEZ, a bachelor, last week left his job as administrative assistant for the city to take a post as administrative analyst at San Francisco State college.

Thirteen fair demsels who toil for the city decided to give Fred a going-away lunch Friday, just for the lark of it. He was the only male in the party.

They thought Fred might be a wee bit embarassed, but he loved it, and got a new set of cuff links to boot.

Word leaked out that City Manager HOWARD STITES was the heir apparent to County Manager E. R. STALLINGS job, if the county manager and supervisors were found guilty of willful misconduct in office, which they weren't.

Night Meat Sales Start Here Friday

Daly City housewives will have a few more hours in which to do their meat shopping after this Friday.

The 28-year-old Daly City ordinance prohibiting the sale of uncooked meat after 6 p.m. and on Sundays and holidays is officially repealed Friday. The city council voted 3-1 to rescind the measure last month.

The action means there is now no local legislation governing the sale of meats, although the county will continue to act in its inspection capacity.

Several supermarkets in the area are planning to extend their hours of meat sales to 9 p.m. every night and on Sunday.

Most of the smaller shop owners have indicated, however, that they will still observe the 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. hours six days a week.

Cities Urge Changes In County Law

A plan for district representation in county government was approved by the North County Council of Cities, meeting last Thursday at Westlake Joe's in Daly City.

The city representatives approved adopting a resolution urging increasing number of supervisors from five to seven; that these seven be elected from districts; and that these districts be based on population.

The changes in county government were recommended over the protest of Supervisor Thomas Callan of Colma, representative of this district.

At present, supervisors are elected from five geographical districts but are voted on by the county at large.

The cities delegates expressed hope that direct district representations could shift the balance of power on the county board from the south-central area to northern San Mateo county.

Mayors of the six north county cities will select a committee within two weeks to draft the resolutions and add any other suggestions for improvement of the county charter.

Councilman Leo Ryan of South San Francisco again leveled severe criticism of the new county charter study committee appointed by supervisors, charging that the north county and north coast should be given an additional member each on the charter study group.

Callan said the appointments were representative, declaring that of the four selections he had, one was named from San Bruno, two from South San Francisco, and one from Daly City, who has a Colma mailing address.

Also up for discussion was Daly City Councilman Del Wilson's campaign to revise the present method of distributing fines and forfeitures from the municipal court to cities; the constant rising of municipal employee salaries; and competition among cities and the county for trained men.

Congressman J. Arthur Younger was the evening's guest speaker, and assured the city officials that he was working to find a solution to the problem of jet flights over the area.

Administration Critic: 40 Hrs. Work 'Erased'

Councilman Micheal De Bernardi Wednesday continued his flank attack on the administration, more particularly City Manager Howard Stites and Public Works Director Otis Calhoun, as he charged that 40 hours of labor had been "erased" from the city records.

De Bernardi also demanded an explanation why steel was purchased at a price about $32 over estimates he had obtained for the same material.

The councilman's inquiry revolved around the construction of a metal bar screen at the entrance to the sanitation plant outfall tunnel off Lake Merced.

Two Men, A Truck

De Bernardi said the records showed that the steel for the project was purchased at a cost of $316.43 but that it took two men and a truck two hours to pick up the material, which brought the cost to $338.

He said he had phoned up two steel firms at random and received a price of $296 for the material, including delivery.

Then De Bernardi went on to charge that originally the public works department had listed 72 hours as engineering time spent in designing the bar screen, later changed it to 32 hours after he began his inquiry into the matter.

The councilman claimed that the work could have been done in 1½ days.

Calhoun said that the "lost" hours were merely a bookkeeping matter.

'Man Incompetent'

"When I found so much time charged to the job, I knew it was erroneous. If the man put in that much time he was not working. It's the prerogative of the city engineer to determine where the hour charges should go. I felt it should be 32 hours," Calhoun replied somewhat miffed. He said the man who had done the engineering work was "incompetent. He's no longer with us."

Here's One 'Lady' Who Really Dislikes Cops

It's always a good policy never to argue with a policeman.

Martha M. Antozak, 42-year-old San Francisco housewife, doesn't like the men in blue. Better still, she apparently can't stand 'em. . . .

Daly City police last week booked her for:

1. Going through a stop sign.
2. Disobedience to a police officer.
3. Refusing to sign a citation.

Officer Richard Phillips, as polite a gendarme as you'll find anywhere, took up the chase when he saw Mrs. Antozak zip her station wagon through the arterial at Mission and Crocker streets.

When she refused to slow down, he crowded her vehicle to the curb at Mission and Wellington. Alighting from his motorcycle, he was amazed to see the lady take off again.

Finally, Phillips forced the lady to the curb at Hillside and Brunswick.

"Who the hell do you think you are?" shouted she.

Phillips reminded her that she had violated the law and was to be cited.

"Why you no good Nazi SOB," continued the lady. "I don't go for these shakedown tactics."

"Let's see your driver's license," demanded the slow-burning Phillips.

"I've got one," added the lady. "But how about you?"

Phillips then radioed for assistance. Fellow officer Lester Bastedo, a mild-mannered giant of a man, responded.

Supervisors Case Tossed Out Of Court

The jurist held that "the entire matter of the seriousness involved in the actions by the board and county manager is primarily for the people of the county to assess through their vested right as the electorate."

Compliments Jury

"The court cannot, however, render its decision without complimenting the members of the grand jury who have ... zealously worked to the sincere end of protecting the rights of the people ...." the judge continued.

Judge Cotton said his decision was "not intended to stifle the lawful processes of grand juries."

District Attorney Keith Sorenson, who was called upon by the grand jury to prosecute the case, had said at the outset that evidence was insufficient to convict the officials of willful misconduct.

At Monday's jury session, an effort to indict Grant for criminal negligence in the loose handling of road funds failed by two votes, 10-5. Twelve votes were needed to institute the action, which would have forced Sorenson to prosecute Grant immediately. Jurors have criticized the failure to press civil charges against Grant.

Grant, who retired last spring as engineer, still holds his position on the county planning commission, although grand jury foreman Ray Higgins has demanded that the accused official be removed immediately by county supervisors.

Lighter side of the festivities will feature a mind-reading performance by Ed Oren.

Administration Critic: 40 Hours Work Erased

Stites explained the steel purchase by pointing out that "Sometimes we can get an order quicker by picking it up than waiting for delivery." He called on purchasing agent Robert Evans to the evidence that the city had obtained estimates from three steel firms.

De Bernardi still pressed the issue, asking that the council form an "investigative board" to study these two items and other projects where "discrepancies" might exist, but received no backing from the other councilmen.

Apartment Project

In other action Wednesday, the council:

1. Directed representative of Caesar-Callan company to give the council further specifics on drainage, street widths, and formation of an assessment district for the $5½ million apartment project in the 75 Dollar Homestead. The council expressed its willingness to approve variances for sidewalk setback and off-street parking below minimum city requirements.

2. Called for a meeting with elementary school district representatives to discuss the proposed vacation of White street sought by the school district. The Doelger firm seeks to extend the street through from 87th to Westlake. De Bernardi proposed that the city go on record as opposing abandonment of the street.

3. Discussed awarding of bids for new police radio equipment, playground equipment and a pick-up truck. The radio bid will not be awarded until council studies further the possibility of converting the present equipment.

4. Noted that public hearing will be held Monday on request of Hilltop Cab Co. for two more taxi permits.

5. Agreed to fill vacancies Monday on parks and recreation and library commissions.

But the lady wasn't through. "You're nothing but a no good bunch of ..... she blurted, challenging Bastedo as he told her she was headed for the station.

At police headquarters, Mrs. Antozak refused to quiet down. "I'll die before I'll pay you guys money to get out on bail," she protested.

Capt. Roy Beecher, investigating the fuss at the counter, then became involved.

The belligerent lady took aim, then tossed her glasses at him.

Mrs. Antozak finally got out on bail.

"Funny thing," Phillips reflected, "the lady wasn't even intoxicated."

Coup Told To Block SF Protest

The area which the school disrict seeks to have abandoned is between Whittier and Lowell streets.

The council referred school district's request to the planning commission for recommendation.

San Francisco will attempt to present new evidence to refute the Jefferson district's need for their land at a hearing before the state allocations board November 13. The allocations board will hear only "new evidence" to be offered by San Francisco, having already overruled the San Francisco protest once.

The Town Record

Stites says he knows nothing about it and contemplates no changes.

Odd ones:

The Colma branch, Bank of America, is in Daly City, while Daly City Auto Wreckers is in Colma.

And have you ever tried "Coattails" at Malloy's bar on Old Mission Road.

That's how the big sign across the top of the building reads.

It's right around the bend from the billboard advertising Bill and Scotty Campbell's restaurant, which boasts, "All you can eat, $250."

ALOIS SCHIESSL (folo copy printers, that's his name), is Daly City's new poundmaster, since young BOB GALINDO departed after about two weeks on the job.

Schiessl is in the delicate position of being a poundmaster when he soon won't have any pound to master.

The city is planning to turn the service over to the county.

Mixologist VINCE MERLO has received a wire from the Joe DiMaggio golf tournament committee disallowing his request for a special handicap in the play which is now in progress.

Actually, a friend on the committee was pulling Vince's leg a trifle. He'll compete with his customary seven or eight strokes.

City To Seek Bids On Insurance Policy

Daly City will advertise for bids for a three-year general comprehensive insurance program, city councilmen decided in study session Wednesday.

Mayor Joseph Verducci said that for an expenditure of some $11,000, the city would have to go to bid.

Last year the North San Mateo County Insurance Agents association vigorously protested placing the policy out for bid, although they were eventually declared low bidder and received the contract.

BREAKING THE SOUTH END BARRIER

We heartily espouse recommendations made last week by delegates to the North County Council of Cities.

The cities group voted to recommend that the county charter be amended to provide that the number of supervisors be increased from five to seven, that the supervisors be elected by districts and that these districts be based on population.

On the first point, we feel that San Mateo county has grown to a size where five supervisors cannot attend to the needs of the far-flung geographical areas. Where once one supervisor might have represented 10,000 people, he now represents 100,000 and upwards.

Election of supervisors by district, instead of at large, is a much-needed revision in county government.

While a supervisor is elected from one of the five districts in the county, the county's entire electorate votes on each supervisor.

We feel that if a supervisor were elected only by the people in his district, he would be more accountable to his constituents and would therefore give better representation.

Another argument in favor of the district election is that it gives more candidates an opportunity to run for county office. Under the present arrangement, it takes a vast and expensive campaign to be elected to the board of supervisors, since politicking must be done on a county-wide level.

Thirdly, the supervisorial districts should be established according to population. This method would help further equal representation for all population areas.

The north county is gradually breaking the south end's stronghold in county government, having recently placed a municipal and superior court judge in office.

These three revisions in the electing of supervisors would further the welfare of northern San Mateo county by removing control of county government from the south end bloc.

Northern San Mateo county certainly should not attempt to control county government. But it is entitled to at least equal representation, something it has not had in San Mateo county's history.

Letters To The Editor

Reader Claims Paper 'Unfair' Backing Bonds

Dear Editor:

Just a few lines to say that many people were disgusted that you could not see fit to publish the opposition's side of this recent college tax increase. I was not against the issue, but when there is opposition to an issue of any kind, being that the newspapers are supported by the public, I think the public has a right to hear both sides of a story. In fact, I was under the impression that this is the purpose of newspapers. How do the papers feel about the Brown Act?

I had never met Mr. Romaine before I saw the nasty article that you wrote into the front page of last week's issue of The Record. From that article, I got his name and went down to Hillsborough to talk to him. After visiting his home, I could see that he is a person that would not be worried about the tax increase, as he seems to be a person of means, so I hope that someday the publishers will give the newspapers back to the people, and do away with this Czar-type school system.

I am not against schools, in general. I know that we must have them for our children, but I am sure against "Architects Dreams," especially since Brisbane has only around nine children going to the college, yet we bear the same tax as the rest of the district. But Brisbane precincts turned the college down, with less than 300 voting. I am not criticizing your newspaper, as I am sure there must have been a misunderstanding, between the opposition and your paper.

But I do hope that in the future, that if there is an opposition, we can hear both sides of the story, and let the grown-ups decide the issue rather than little three-year-old leading their parents to vote.

PLENTY OF SPIRIT

Colma Intermediate Students Rally Behind Football Teams

The students at the Colma School recently held their first school spirit assembly of the year, with Carla Gomez, commissioner of assemblies, presiding.

The assembly was held to build interest in the seventh and eighth grade touch-football teams currently playing other schools in San Mateo county.

Michael Tarens, captain of the eighth grade team, spoke on students backing the Colma teams, then introduced his teammates. Micheal DeBernardi introduced the seventh grade team.

Lorraine Storm, commissioner of school spirit, urged all students to show their spirit by supporting the teams, and then introduced the cheerleaders of the school. Marilyn Durbin, head cheerleader, and Judith Reginelli, and Penny Almquist, led the student body in yells.

The newly elected officers of the seventh and eighth grade classes were presented by Kenneth Adelson, president of the Colma Student Body Association. They were: President Dennis Chase, Vice President Carlos Rivas, and Secretary Lynette Fishel, of the eighth grade, and President Julius Bertolucci, Vice President David Jenkins, and Secretary Judy Anderson, of the seventh grade.

Student body officers Carla Gomez and Pamela Greenwood planned the assembly with the guidance of Lloyd Andrews, vice principal, and Robert LaCava, seventh grade teacher and faculty chairman of the assembly committee. LaCava said that he anticipates "several interesting assembly programs this year since there are many talented students at Colma."

Bell's Grocerymen Pace Brisbane Loop

Bell's Corner Grocers today lead the Brisbane Handicap League by a margin of four games.

Chuck's Service holds second place, while the Fire Department and Union Service are tied for third.

The 10 league teams all hail from Brisbane and are sponsored by merchants and clubs.

Fire Prevention Program Termed 'Very Successful'

Under the chairmanship of Battalion Chief Frank Specht and a committee of fireman the Daly City Fire Department conducted a very successful Fire Prevention Week from October 6 to 12. An extensive program of fire prevention was prepared and presented throughout the city and special emphasis was placed upon the school fire prevention program.

Plastic fire hats and rings to point up fire safety among the school age children were supplied by Hartford Insurance Company and distributed by firemen.

Home safety check lists emphasizing fire hazards in the home were filled out and returned by students.

School drills were conducted.

Fire safety poster contests were held, judged and trophies are now being engraved to be awarded to winners. The responce and talent displayed was particularly good, Specht said.

Fire safety posters were distributed to merchants throughout the city to point up fire safety in commercial establishments.

During the period from October 1 to 15, an estimated 1500 children, teachers, mothers and youth group leaders visited the fire stations where conducted tours, lectures, drills and demonstrations of equipment were held.

16 Collegians Aid Daly City Sports Program

Sixteen San Francisco State college students are working with the Daly City parks and recreation department this fall as part of their undergraduate physical education training.

According to Director Dee Van Nest, the collegians are required to work 25 hours with the department to get credit for their college degrees.

Miss Jessie Pinkney, SFS recreation major, is fulfilling an 120-hour requirement by assisting Don Coder, Marchbanks park recreation leader.

Van Nest said attendance in the fall playground program, now in its fifth week, "is increasing rapidly."

Westmoor Frosh Succumb To Cap, Asian Flu, 21-7

Missing six first stringers via the flu bug, Westmoor's frosh footballers succumbed to invading Capuchino last Thursday, 21-7.

Three long passes put the young Rams way behind at halftime, 21-0. Rod Losberger's squad rallied and looked good the final 24 minutes.

Joe Marson was on the receiving end of three six-point tosses from Cap QB Tommy Edwards. The Ram tally came early in the third period, with an 80-yard march climaxed by a Billy Hix aerial to Ron Petrocchi.

Losberger cited linebacker Larry Siegell, halfback John Longstreth and Hix for exceptional performances. Alternate Ram QB Bruce Howard was sorely missed in the punting and pitching department.

The Westmoor eleven faces arch rival Jefferson this Thursday at Jeff. The Indian yearlings are 1-1 in league Peninsula League play. Jeff opened with a 12-0 win over Burlingame, then lost to San Mateo, 19-7.

Westmoor fell to South City's frosh, 33-6, in the Rams' opener.

Cap Cage Fives Roll Past Rams

Westmoor High's lightweight cage teams suffered losses Thursday in Peninsula League action against Capuchino at San Bruno.

The Ram 20's lost, 43-24, and the 10's ran out of gas, 28-12.

Guard Tissier of Westmoor potted 14 points in the 20's tilt, high output for both games.

The Rams used only ten players in the two tilts.

Standout San Mateo Prep Arizona-Bound

Track-football ace Bob Devincenzi of San Mateo High said today that he "will probably accept" an athelic scholarship to Arizona State college at Tempe.

Arizona State, located a few miles from Phoenix, currently is in the midst of a massive recruiting campaign for athletes. Almost half of the school's football players hail from outside the state.

Devincenzi is well known to Jefferson and Westmoor players. He scored two touchdowns against each Daly City team in Peninsula League play this fall.

Jinx Falkenburg and Tex McCrary report the sixteen-week coverage of Graham's largest Crusade for Christianity.

They "set the stage" with a photographic tour of Manhattan, followed by the excitement of the Crusade's Opening Night in Madison Square Garden.

High moments in "Miracle In Manhattan" include the overflow crowd that jammed Yankee Stadium, breaking every attendance record in 34 years of the park's colorful history; a brief appearance by Vice-President, Richard M. Nixon; a glimpse of Ethel Waters singing with the Crusade Choir; and the final service held at 42nd Street and Broadway, silhouetted against the glittering lights of Times Square.

The doors to Daly City War Memorial building will be open at 7 p.m.

All seats are on a "first-come" basis, with no admission charge.

The local showing is sponsored by the First Community church of South San Francisco. Richard E. Eggert is pastor of the congregation, which holds services in the Queen Esther chapel in Woodlawn Memorial park, Colma.

Assemblyman Francis Urges 'Caution' On TV Franchise Grants

Cities and counties were urged today to adopt a "go slow policy" in granting franchises for pay-as-you-see television systems by Assemblyman Louis Francis (R-San Mateo), chairman of a legislative committee investigating and studying pay-as-you-see television.

Chairman Francis reported that he has received an opinion from the State Legislative Counsel, Ralph N. Kleps, which "leaves no question that the state has the right to regulate and control closed-circuit pay-as-you-see television systems."

The committee, which has recently held a hearing in Los Angeles and will hold another in San Francisco on November 21 and 22, has been advised by representatives of pay-TV corporations that their proposed systems would necessarily be linked with the subscriber's TV set with the existing telephone system of poles and equipment.

Citing only 12 serious cases of influenza during September, the County Health Department in its monthly bulletin reports that "the number of cases is not alarming."

The county, however, is keeping the area under constant surveillance, tabulating school absence rates and reports from private physicians.

Following a national trend, the incidence of syphilis was high in San Mateo county last month. Eight cases were reported, four of them in the South San Francisco-San Bruno region. The southern part of the county listed four cases of gonorrhea, also on the upswing.

Daly City's only reported cases last month were a flu victim and an individual suffering from salmonellosis, a cholera-type infection.

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brown

A large segment of the movie-going public enjoys watching two dirty-faced small boys acting naturally. There is also the group that finds foreign backgrounds intriguing, provided that they are used creatively and are free from the taint of the travelogue. This twain will meet at the St. Francis, where "Escapade in Japan" quietly world-premiered the other night.

The movie ads cover practically the entire plot except to explain how Jon Provost the son of an American diplomat and Roger Nakagawa the son of a Japanese fisherman meet in the first place.

Jon is the son of Cameron Mitchell and Teresa Wright (whose hairdo is so unbecoming you'll hardly recognize her). Their marriage has reached the tottery stage, and Teresa is only waiting for Jon to fly from Manila to Tokyo before she pulls the props from under it.

Narrow Escapes

The plane is forced down at sea and Jon is rescued by Roger's parents. Neither boy can figure out how such an accident could have happened, but Roger, the elder, decides it must have been Jon's fault. Fearing that the police will put Jon in jail, Roger suggests they both run away. He's certain he knows where Tokyo is.

Tokyo is a little more difficult to find than anticipated and their search for it, hampered by many narrow escapes from "capture" by the police, takes them and the audience on a Technicolored tour of the Japanese countryside and into several impressive temples, one containing hundreds of golden images.

Gentle Humor

Much of the gentle humor of the film arises from their amazement at each other's different customs, similar problems (dirt behind ears) and their childishly innocent viewpoints on such adult pleasures as a burlesque theater and a Geisha house.

Filmed in a new process called Technirama, "Escapade" has many visual delights. A brief scene showing beautifully costumed dancers in what appears to be a temple is particularly memorable. The color is a joy. Watch for the screens used as background to the main title and listen to Max Steiner's score, which uses some of the traditional Japanese instruments.

A word of warning. Check the break so that you catch the Mister Magoo cartoon and avoid "Riot and Rhythm." There is absolutely no excuse for any studio's turning out as dismal an offering as this.

Trial For Bartender Who Says 'Innocent'

George Azevedo, bartender at Eve's Place on Mission street, pleaded not guilty in municipal court Thursday to a charge of selling liquor to an intoxicated person.

The tavern man was granted a trial by court, set for October 30.

In other action, Martha Antozak, San Francisco housewife, forfeited bail on charges of going through an arterial, disobedience to a Daly City police officer, and refusing to sign a citation.

MODEL-LOVELY Dolores Madison gives firemen Albert Cheno (left) and Bernard Maguire a hand in plugging the 47th annual Widows and Orphans Ball, sponsored by the San Francisco fire department. The affair will be held at Civic Auditorium on Friday evening, October 25.

Westlake Woman Wins Navy Award

Mrs. Betty Abramo, 263 Westbrook avenue, Daly City, a secretary at the U. S. Naval Radiological Defense Laboratory in San Francisco, was rated "outstanding" for work performance for the past year and has been awarded a certificate and $200.

Though Mrs. Abramo's position is essentially that of a personal secretary to the Head of the Military Evaluations Division, she also functions as an administrative assistant. In the award recommendation letter, her supervisor cited examples of Mrs. Abramo's "almost flawless output, often done under extreme pressure; her ability to undertake and complete specific tasks with a minimum of instruction, and to establish personal relationships of value to the the division."

'Nuclear Weapons' Feature Enthuses Snell PTA Folks

"Prepare for all disasters and call it civil defense," declared Ernest Ozburn to an overflow crowd at the James L. Snell PTA meeting last week at Garden Village school.

"Educating people in the ways of defense and planning intelligently are the ultimate aims of civilian defense," stressed Ozburn. Speaking on "Nuclear Weapons" Ozburn related the scientific composition and detonation methods of the atom and hydrogen bombs in lay language that everyone understood.

"Operation Doorstep," a film showing the atom bombing of two wooden homes in Yucca Flats, was shown by Mrs. Jack Bertken, civil defense chairman. Mrs. Bertken announced that children's identification tags would be ordered and should be ready for distribution in 30 days. A first-aid kit and a home-ready kit were prepared and displayed by Mrs. Clifford Warner.

Chief Ray Savage and a full force of police officers from Broadmoor were introduced by Mrs. Fred Smith, PTA president.

Mrs. Walter Erickson has accepted the office of vice president and Mrs. Marguerite Henry will fulfill the duties of secretary for the unit. Mrs. Samuel Stein is the new chairman of the books, music and drama committee.

"United In PTA Membership" was the theme of the membership campaign, which closed last Friday. Mrs. Harry Puddy and Mrs. M. M. Eastman, membership co-chairmen, report that almost 100 percent of their goal has been attained. Some 581 full memberships and 200 associate memberships had been subscribed to by last Wednesday.

Mrs. Joseph Elliott asked all members to cooperate in the salvage drive, with bags being sent home by the children yesterday for return to the school's kitchens by October 24.

The annual Halloween party will be held at the Garden Village multi-purpose room on October 31 at 7 p.m. Prizes will be awarded to the costumed children by age levels. Snell PTA recreation co-chairman Michael Orlich and John Belforte have made all arrangements for this party in conjunction with the Daly City recreation department.

The PTA publications display arranged by Mrs. Edward Morgan and Mrs. LeRoy Larsen drew a great deal of attention from parents. Coffee and donuts were served by the kindergarten mothers of Garden Village school, hostesses for the evening.

The Troop voted to say "The Stations of the Cross" monthly, to collect magazines for the Good Shepherd Home, and to help clean O.L.P.H. church weekly.

A new member of Troop St. Anne is Barbara Anne Rosa.

Olympia, Vista Mar Look To Halloween

Santa Claus has a workshop at the North Pole, but Olympia and Vista Mar schools seem to be harboring a factory for witches, goblins, and old-fashioned Hallowe'en fun.

Such Halloween projects as wet chalk, construction paper masks, pumpkin-shaped cutouts, ghostly centured murals, Halloween poems and stories are to be displayed in the showcases in the entrance hall of the school. These projects, combined with the feeling of adventure and fun are the revealing factors that make the spirit of Hallowe'en come alive, the students report.

THREE of the many attractive Westlake femmes who participated in the fourth annual Mercy Ball Saturday night in San Francisco were Mesdames William J. Creegan, Louis Serratto and Louis Gernhardt. Proceeds will benefit Our Lady of Mercy. THE RECORD photo

Presbyterians Set Halloween Party In B'moor

Members and friends of Broadmoor Presbyterian church, on 87th street in Colma, are cordially invited to a huge Pot-luck Dinner and Hallowe'en Party this Friday night, in the church social hall.

Rev. Herbert Tweedie, minister of the church, announces that all people attending are requested to wear a decorative costume of some sort, in the spirit of Hallowe'en. The Pot-luck will commence at 6:30 o'clock, with coffee and milk for children supplied by the sponsors of the evening, the Adult Bible Study Class, popularly known as the "Coffee Class." This group gets its name, incidentally, from the brief period of fellowship and coffee-drinking that its membership participates in before their meetings at 9:30 a.m. each Sunday.

Following the dinner, the tables will be cleared away, and songs will be led by Paul Elliott and Kenny Gillespie. Games for all ages will be played, after which the costumes will be judged, "for originality and aptness of thought," according to Larry Doyle, president of the Coffee Class, and a radio and TV announcer.

Decorations will be handled by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith. The kitchen committee is under the leadership of Mrs. James Hamilton. Judges for the costumes are selected from among Sunday School teachers in all departments, headed by their superintendent, Glenn Hawley.

Pastor Tweedie commented that the evening would be a further demonstration of the well-knit fellowship enjoyed by the church membership, and said that the evening would conclude with a big surprise, the nature of which he was "pleased to keep secret until the end of the party."

Reformation Of Church Topic At Bethel Lutheran

The Reformation of the Christian church will be observed at Bethel Lutheran church, Alemany boulevard and Huron avenue, next Sunday in both services. Divine worship is conducted at 8 a.m. and 10:45 a.m.

October 31 has come to be regarded as the birthday of the Protestant Reformation. It was on that day in 1517 that Martin Luther nailed his ninety-five sentences on the door of the Castle Church in Wittenberg. This Reformation once more brought the fundamental Bible truths into the light of day. The Rev. Herbert P. Schroeder will deliver the sermon. Robert Schuneman, a graduate student at Stanford university, will serve as organist. The junior choir, under the direction of Miss Gladys Schultz, will sing.

Bethel church is uniting with the other Lutheran churches of the Missouri Synod in the Reformation Rally which will be conducted Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Civic Auditorium. The junior choir and members of the Sunday school will participate in the children's choir, organized for that occasion. The public is invited.

BIBLICAL COMEDY OPENS SCHEDULE AT STATE COLLEGE

Andre Obey's spectacular fable "Noah" will be presented at San Francisco State College Theatre, 19th avenue at Holloway, October 25, and 26, and November 1, and 2, on the main stage at 8:30 p.m.

This charming and upsetting modern allegory is a tale of man's search for good in the world through fire, famine, flood and human frailities.

Dr. J. Fenton McKenna, director of Noah, says, "This is a universal play about a universal problem: man's relationship with the world and with God. It's delightful comedy, and spirited fantasy is directed toward our understanding of ourselves. We all have Noah's problems, with our own families, with our society, and just as with him, it's the human element that holds us back."

THE MAGIC CARPET

By Joan Taylor

It may be just a rug to you, something to vacuum, to keep the small fry's muddy feet away from, something to fret about when Spring cleaning time comes. Remember, though, that rug ties together your room's color scheme, and adds elegance and charm to that room. Well, it should too, for just recall the many exotic ways in which rugs pop into history.

When Cleopatra had herself smuggled into the stronghold of Caesar she did it rolled up inside a rug. Think back to the magical qualities of the famed flying carpet of Baghdad. Throughout the mystic Orient, carpets and rugs not only come down through history, but they actually were history. The intricate designs of the famous Oriental rugs have meanings rooted deep in ancient legends and history. Even in our life today, the rug plays its role of elegance. When royalty visits another land, the crimson carpet is much in evidence. And in our own countrys Pentagon Building notable visitors get the "red carpet" routine.

And the O'Connor Rug and Upholstery Cleaners, of 2627 Ocean Avenue, in Lakeside Village, San Francisco, can promise expert Oriental and Persian rug cleaning,—can do their cleaning right in your home,—and can assure you lasting satisfaction too, and respect for the qaulity of fine fabrics.

REVOLUTIONARY NEW "SHOCK-ABSORBER"

GIVES EXTRA PROTECTION TO FRAGILE FREIGHT

Careful handling of freight has always been a prime concern of Southern Pacific. Four years ago we asked Stanford Research Institute to help us develop an even better way to cushion boxcar shipments of fragile freight. The result is something we're proud to report.

It is the Hydra-Cushion Underframe freight car, which employs a unique sliding underframe with a hydraulic pressure device to give extra cushioning to fragile shipments while cars are being coupled or are in transit.

350 Cars. We built 350 of these cars—and added "DF" (damage-free) interior loading equipment and roller bearings for good measure—to assure extra protection to shipments of television receivers, bottled goods, glassware, ceramic tile and numerous other fragile products.

The Hydra-Cushion Underframe freight car is an example, we think, of how Southern Pacific uses modern research in our continuing effort to give the finest freight service.

Coast To Vote This Tuesday On 'Pacifica'

26 Candidates Seek City Council Berths

Eight of the 26 candidates for the "Pacifica" city council have submitted the following background information as requestted by THE RECORD.

All 26 hopefuls were given the opportunity to supply the newspaper with campaign information, according to Editor Harold P. Bradshaw.

RALPH BARKEY

Born in Brooklyn, and a Coastside resident for two years. Works in executive capacity for a San Francisco electrical supply firm. Graduate of the RCA Institute in New York, and with National Broadcasting Company for six years. Active in "Pacifica" drive from the start, and chairman of "Dollars for Election" campaign. Believes incorporation will allow "us to govern ourselves better than the way we have been governed by the county."

GLENN A. BUTLER

A five-year Coastside resident and mail carrier at Sharp Park postoffice. Lives at 210 Reichling avenue. Long active in local civic, school and church affairs. Former member of Ocean Shore Sanitary District board and Citizen's Committee for Better Schools. Veteran of the Marine Corps and National Guard. Has worked on district and state committees of American Legion. Skipper of the Mariners Presbyterian Club and secretary of the Coastside Boys Club. "I have no ties with any group or individuals. As incorporation is the only means of self rule—and by combining the special districts—it would be more economical in operation. The main issue in my mind is to keep the tax rate as low as possible and give the people maximum service."

ERNEST S. FOX

In the taxi business on the Coastside for almost seven years. Lives at 1160 San Francisco boulevard, Sharp Park. Serves as Red Cross coordinator for the Coastside. "I am not addicted to politics as managed by parties. I am primarily interested in what the people want—better police protection, parks and recreation facilities, and to entice light industry to our area."

ROY A. JONES

Lives at 435 Heathcliff drive and operates nursery and garden supply business in Edgemar. Arrived on Coastside 10 years ago and also has worked as a general contractor and restaurant operator. Instrumental in the removal of two controversial members of the North Coast Sanitary and Water district boards. "We can save money by incorporation. We can reduce our overall tax rate only by the election of competent and experienced men and women."

HAROLD L. ORDWAY

A Massachussets-born Westview resident, 711 Claridge drive. Employed by United Airlines in the maintenance division. Lived in South San Francisco before moving to Coast last year. A six-year Army veteran of World War II and a member of the City Committee. "I am for incorporation because I believe local government is the only answer to solving our problems."

CLAUDE ROBERTS

Employed by Veteran's Administration as official state and federal agency representative. Deplores "highly publicized name-calling, mud-slinging disputes between individuals on both the City Committee, many of whom are candidates, and the committee opposing incorporation." Incorporation would unite the communities on the Coastside into one legal body. This would authorize direct consolidated representation, with the power to make its own laws in matters of city jurisdiction."

GERALD SCHUMACHER

Long-time spokeman for Linda Mar Homeowners Association. Age 33, father of two daughters, and a resident of 915 Serena drive, Pedro Valley. Employed as business executive for S. K. Wellman company. Member of the City Committee, commander of Linda Mar Post 615, American Legion, and three scholastic honor societies. "The future of the Coastside can be assured by the formation of a city which will blueprint a master plan for economy of our tax dollars. We are now spending more than any other city in San Mateo county for less services. Let's make the same tax dollar provide us with better services, local planning and local government."

Former newspaperman, of Vallemar, who works as an insurance agent on the Peninsula. Member of both the Laguna Salada elementary and Jefferson High school boards of trustees. Considered throughout the Coastside as one of the area's finest representatives. Particularly interested in better education facilities and "direct city control."

Others in the council race but who did not submit campaign statements as requested, are:

Charles S. Bublak, a butcher, of 941 San Pedro terrace; Walter L. Campbell, utility lineman, 524 Johnson avenue; Daniel R. Davis, 439 Harvey way; Jean S. Fassler, housewife, Box 43, Pedro Valley; Harold Feyge, engineer, 107 Angelita way.

Pope, dairy distributor, 371 San Mateo avenue; Phillip R. San Filippo, real estate salesman, 1143 Cabrillo way, Sharp Park.

Veterans News

Widows and orphans of veterans who lost their lives as a result of military service have not lost their rights to the new style dependency indemnity compensation by virtue of having failed to make application before last July 1st. That deadline only terminated the right to have indemnity payments dated back to January 1st. A change-over from compensation to the newer indemnity benefit can be made whenever the time appears best. Widows and children may apply at a future date and receive payments as of the date the Veterans Adminstration receives their application.

Where the widow of a Korea serviceman is receiving servicemen's indemnity payments of $92.90 a month along with her compensation checks, she has probably been advised not to file until she had received the entire $10,000 to which she is entitled. This advice still holds good.

Similarly, where an eligible widow has several children, she is usually better off waiting until the children are no longer eligible for payments (except where the veteran had a long period of service or was a higher-ranking officer.)

An occasional check-in at the Veterans' Service Office, courthouse, Redwood City, is advisable as the children grow older.

Also, a check with any veteran organization regarding education advantages should be made regarding assistance or scholarship qualification for higher education.

News Items:

Most American Legion posts are holding Halloween dances Saturday evening, October 26th. Costumes and all the fun that marks such an occasion will be featured by Broadmoor post, Brisbane post and Daly City post.

A district membership luncheon will be held by the 26th District, American Legion Auxiliary, Saturday, at 12:30 p.m. in San Carlos. Members from all the units in this area will attend. November 12th is the date for the 'Early Bird' citations and all units are making special effort to re-enroll their entire membership before that date. State chairman, Mrs. Dana Kleinke of Hanford, will be the guest speaker.

Preparation for the Holiday activities is under way. The many boxes of gifts for the 'gift shop' will be delivered during the next few days for the veterans to send home to their families. During the first week in December, patients in the several facilities will do their shopping and members of the organizations will ship the packages. These gifts are purchased through the sale of the Memorial Poppies. Many ward parties are being planned also, for the entertainment of our hospitalized veterans.

The 26th District, American Legion, will meet in Redwood City, Friday evening, November 1st. Delegates from Broadmoor, Westlake, Daly City and Brisbane posts will attend.

Los Angeles and Kern Counties, in that order, were California's top producers of mineral products in 1955.

First (And Last) Public Hearing On Coast Freeway

More than 200 Coastsiders gathered at the Pedro Valley school last week to hear state highway officials reiterate their plans for the Coast Freeway route.

The officials told the large throng that the present route would be cheapest and would take the fewest number of improvements.

B. W. Booker, assistant state highway engineer, said the state would proceed with the planned route in the immediate future, unless incorporation is successful. If the area incorporates, Booker indicated a second public hearing would be held to negotiate with the new government.

School Chiefs Await 'Apology' On Bonds By Coast Newspaper

Two local school superintendents and the county superintendent of schools still have received no public reply from a small Coastside newspaper for "completely disregarding the truth" in its editorial columns prior to the May 17 high school bond election.

The newspaper under fire from the administrators is known as the Sharp Park Breakers, which consistently has opposed the public schools and the city movement on the North Coastside.

First to officially challenge the newspaper's "false statements" was James Tormey, county superintendent, who demanded the publisher "publicily apologize on certain statements made regarding the bond issue and against the integrity of certain high school board members."

School Superintendents

Tormey's letter was followed by similar requests made by Supt. Fred Lucas, Laguna Salada school district, and Supt. Edward Morgan, Jefferson Union High school district.

Mrs. Maude Farrell, publisher of the Coastside newspaper, has refused to heed the protests, either verbally or publicly in the newspaper.

Morgan's letter to Mrs. Farrell, released to other local newspapers, read, in part:

"On the day before our May 17th bond election, you carried in your newspaper one of the most bitter attacks on the integrity and honesty of the Jefferson High school district board of trustees, the Citizens Steering Committee, and administration, I have ever read. You completely disregarded the truth. Your publication, coming out one day before election, gave our district no opportunity to reply."

Predicts Tax Hikes

The article in the Breakers, briefly, charged that voters of the district should hold the Citizens Committee, trustees and the administration "personally responsible for the amount of tax increases . . . . if you approve this bond issue."

The Farrell publication went on to say that a "yes" response on bonds would result in tax increases instead of the reduction in taxes "promised" by the school board and the administration.

"Like their (trustees) former promises," the Breakers newspapers went on, "these consist of plain unvarnished misrepresentations. These elected board members, including Mr. Raymond Whitney, a candidate for re-election, surely have the voters pegged for idiots," the Coast newspaper added.

Proof Positive

Morgan, documenting his registered-letter reply to the Sharp Park newspaper, cited post-election tax statistics compiled by the county superintendent of schools.

"The official established 1957-58 bond interest and redemption tax rate for the Jefferson Union high school district is .338 cents per $100 of assessed valuation," Morgan reminded the Coastside publisher.

He went on to further strengthen the facts given the public prior to the bond election:

"During the high school bond election campaign, the board of trustees, Citizens Steering Committee and the administration stated, 'if you vote yes on May 17th your 1957-58 high school bond tax will not be increased from the present tax of .475 per $100, but will DECREASE approximately .06 cents."

Morgan continued, "In all public utterances before service clubs, fraternal groups, and in the newspapers of the district, we carefully explained why such a tax decrease was possible and what the tax rate would be if the homeowners voted no. As you can seen from the offically established 1957-1958 bond tax rate, the board of trustees, Citizens Committee, and the administration were conservative — our bond tax rate did not decrease .06 cents, rather the decrease amounts to .137 cents—twice the amount estimated by the board, steering committee and the administration," Morgan added.

Demands Apologies

Morgan concluded his letter to the Sharp Park newspaper with the statement:

"Recognizing that every newspaper desires to report the true facts to its readers, I request that you immediately publish this letter in its entirety, and that editorially you acknowledge you were wrong. I further believe you should publicly apologize to Mr. Whitney, to the others who have been elected to serve as trustees of the high school district, to the public spirited individuals who voluntered their services and time as members of the high school's bond steering committee, and to the administration."

Most of the anti-school articles in the Sharp Park Breakers have been authorized by E. L. Tong, long-time controversial politico on the North Coastside.

'City' Victory, Peak Balloting Predicted

An estimated 5500 North Coastsiders will go to the polls Tuesday to decide whether to incorporate their community as the City of Pacifica.

The voters will also have a 26-slate roster of candidates from which to choose five persons to serve as their city councilmen—if incorporation is successful.

Of the 6949 eligible voters, approximately 80 per cent, or 5500, are expected to respond at the polls to culminate several months vigorous and sometimes bitter politicking over the incorporation issue.

The proposed city, which encompasses Westview, Edgemar, Pacific Manor, Sharp Park, Vallemar, Rockaway Beach and Linda Mar, would have a population of 20,847 and an area of 12 square miles.

'3-1 Victory'

Despite a barrage of violent opposition from a Sharp Park newspaper, championed by E. L. Tong, the Pacifica backers predicted incorporation would carry by a 3-1 margin. George Mason, chairman of the 33-man city committee, was extremely confident.

The incorporation people are counting on strong backing from Coastsiders because of several key issues: thwarting strip annexations by outside cities; providing more police protection and recreation; and enabling the community to do its own planning.

Taxes are, of course, a fundamental issue. The city committee claims Pacifica would have a tax rate of 13 cents per $100 assessed valuation, which would cost the average homeowner about $3 a year. A spokesman for incorporation asserted that "North Coastsiders are now paying higher taxes than residents of any incorporated city in the Bay Area."

Abolish Districts

If Pacifica is created, the Coastsiders would still retain many of its special service districts, which also have taxing power. Eventual aim of the city committee, however, is to absorb some of these special districts for tax savings.

Many of the city services will be provided by the county on a subcontract basis. State subventions of $175,948, which would accrue to the area if it incorporates, plus the 13-cent tax rate, would be enough money to provide all present county services along with additional police protection and recreation facilities, according to a special report prepared by the governmental research staff of Louis J. Kroeger.

The city committee virtually closed out its activities Saturday with a fund-raising dance that grossed $170.

A total of 15 polling places will be open from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m.

Mason said his group feared a last-minute "canard" by incorporation opponents but declared the city committee was ready to cope with any "surprise attack."

Incorporation has gained the endorsement of many Coastside civic leaders, including the Laguna Salada Elementary school board, it's superintendent, Frederick Lucas, principals of six Coastside schools, PTA presidents, heads of homeowners associations, the board of fire commissioners and the heads of the North Coastside Civil Defense Corps.

KIDS DECORATE LINDA MAR SHOPS FOR HALLOWEEN

Children, over 100 strong, are busy decorating the windows of the Linda Mar Shopping Center with an array of ghosts, goblins, pumpkins and witches for the second annual Halloween contest.

Under the direction of Mrs. Lucille Foster, head of the art department for the Laguna Salada Elementary School district, the children are competing for cash prizes for the different grades, with ribbons to the winners and runners-up.

Plans call for the decoration of the entire center, to be completed Friday night, with the winners to be selected by a group of judges chosen by Mrs. Foster.

In addition to the window decoration contest, the Linda Mar merchants, in cooperation with the Linda Mar Homeowners association, will sponsor the annual Halloween parade and costume contest. The parade, throughout the shopping center, is slated to get under way Hallowe'en evening at 7:30 p.m., with the judging to be done during the course of the parade. Valuable merchandise awards are to be given the winners, while all entrants are to receive free candy, ice cream and donuts, according to the committee headed by Jack Beall. Other members of the committee include Mrs. Alice Uriarte, Mrs. Donald Dahlberg, Walt Davini, Bud Bennett and Claude King.

Rotarians Adopt 'Chain Letter' To Gain Blood Donors

Daly City Rotary club has set October 29 as blood bank day at Westlake school from 3 to 7 p.m.

Volunteers are being recruited through a unique "chain letter" program.

Letters urging blood donation are being sent to hundreds of Daly City-Colma residents. Recipients of the letters, in turn, are being asked to mail the original letter and a copy to two friends.

Ultimately, the Rotarians hope to reach thousands of potential blood donors through the chain letter method.

Theme of the campaign is "The life you save may be your own or your neighbors!

Individuals can donate their blood to any person, group or company.

The mobile blood bank is being brought here by the San Mateo county mobile unit.

This marks the third year the Rotarians have sponsored the blood bank campaign here.

CSM President Issues 'Thanks' For JC Victory

Dr. Julio Bortolazzo, president of College of San Mateo, issued this statement following last Tuesday's successful bond election:

"I want to express my most sincere appreciation to the Citizens Advisory Committee, to the Citizens Committee for the College of San Mateo bonds, and to the thousands of interested individuals who spent many hours in putting over this very important College of San Mateo bond issue. The people of the San Mateo Junior College District have expressed their interest and willingness to maintain junior college facilities for the expanding college level enrollments in the 1960's. This bond issue guarantees the young men and women of the San Mateo Junior College District the first two years of their college education."

"The board of trustees is committed to a program of economy. Every effort will be made to obtain district-wide participation as the plans for the first unified campus are drawn."

"A special citizens committee has been appointed by the board of trustees and will meet soon to begin its work in advising the board on the acquisition of a northern site for future development. The San Mateo Junior College District has taken a very important forward step in educational planning."

Schools Conduct Hearing Tests For Youngsters

Jefferson Elementary school district has launched a four-month schedule of hearing tests for youngsters in the second through sixth grades.

The audiometric testing is being conducted by a county health official, assisted by school nurses and Mrs. Helen Delafield, district health coordinator.

All pupils in the second, fourth and sixth grades, plus children new to the district in the third and fifth grades receive the tests each year. Kindergarten youngsters and first graders are tested on recommendation of individual teachers.

If a child is discovered to have a hearing deficiency, his parents are immediately contacted by the district and advised to seek medical correction. Classroom and educational adjustments are made accordingly by the school district.

For additional information, persons should call the district office, PL 5-3341.

Pack 248 Plans Dinner-Dancing To Raise Funds

Spaghetti dinner and an evening of dancing on Saturday, November 2, will be the major fund-raising project of the year for Cub Pack 248, according to Frank Pacelli, the unit's ways and means committee chairman.

The affair is scheduled for the social hall at Our Lady of Mercy church in Westlake. Admission is $3 a couple.

Last Pack meeting included graduation ceremonies for Jimmy Hunt and words of welcome for two new transfers, Ross Davis and Paul Silen.

Special awards went to Mary Smith's Den 6, for attendance, and to Dens 1, 5 and 7, for inspection.

Bill Pengra served as "ghost" narrator in the "House of Horrors" presentation which highlighted the evening's festivities. The Cubs listened in awe as Pengra unraveled a mysterious tale, supplemented by the rattling of chains and many eerie noises. Apple-dunking contests wrapped up the program.

This month's Pack committee meeting is scheduled at the home of Mrs. Louis Perianos, 48 Westdale avenue.

7000 Students Take TB X-rays

Over 7000 free chest X-rays were taken in county schools by the Chestmobile of the San Mateo County Tuberculosis and Health Association during the past four weeks, case-finding director Dr. Walter Gaines reported today.

About 35% of the 7166 mini-films were taken of teachers and other school personnel, and the balance were high school seniors, he added.

"All school districts in the county now require negative X-ray reports from teachers," Dr. Gaines said. "The Tuberculosis Association is happy to cooperate in this program to protect school children from exposure to tuberculosis. There is no excuse for children contracting TB these days, but it still happens occasionally when we relax our vigilance."

LIBRARY FRIENDS' PREPARE MEETING AT WESTMOOR HIGH

Friends of the Library have formulated final plans to make their general meeting of November 7 a success. The meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m. in the library of Westmoor High school and will feature Dr. Mary-Margaret Scobey, assistant professor of education at San Francisco State college, as guest speaker.

Ed Morgan, superintendent of Jefferson High School district, will introduce the speaker. In a recent statement, Morgan said, "I know how much interest has been shown regarding our fine new school. We are all very proud of it. The Friends of the Library have invited everyone to attend their general meeting and I am happy to arrange a short tour of the school before the meeting." He further suggested that anyone interested in viewing the school should arrive about 7:30.

In addition to Dr. Scobey and the tour, Westmoor High Choral Group will present a short program under direction of Alfred Runnells.

Overland Stages began operating between San Antonio, Texas and San Diego August 9, 1957.

TOP WINNER of Westlake's contest which ended last week with the awarding of a Chevrolet sedan and other prizes, was Mrs. Earl Herleikson. Mrs. Herleikson (center) who lives at 23 Crestline drive, Westlake, is shown here receiving the keys to her new car from Henry Doelger. With her is Janet Cox, 715 Maddux avenue, who picked the lucky winning number from the drawing barrel. Other winners included: George E. JEFFERSON HI-LITES

Sue Champion & Maxine Tebeau

"Blithe Spirit," a comedy by Noel Coward, has been chosen for the fall play which will be presented November 14, and 15.

Under the direction of Miss Seaton, and Student Director Sue Champion, the cast has been hard at work to make "Blithe Spirit" a most successful production.

The play is a comedy pertaining to the powers of the supernatural world and what happens when Madame Arcati brings Charles Condimine's deceased wife, Elvira, back to life.

An adult humor is the most important factor that the cast must achieve. This sophisticated comedy has been double cast with the following students playing these roles:

Double Cast

Charles Condimine — Ed Davis and Gary Breckon.
Ruth Condimine — Jo Ann Bhend and Sharlee Nelson.
Elvira — Barbara Smith and Cecile Champagne.
Madame Arcati — Jo Ann Eckert and Loine Reed.

Mrs. Bradman — Pat Caughman and Margaret Du Bois.

"Divided We Stand" was the theme for the first conference of the Peninsula League.

The conference is held twice a year, in the fall and spring so that students from the schools all over the North Peninsula can get together and see what is going on in the other schools. They exchange ideas on improving clubs, student government, rallies, assemblies, school spirit, and court systems.

TV and Radio

CBS DOCUMENTARY . . . This week CBS Television premiered a new public affairs series, "The Twentieth Century" (KPIX, Sundays, 3 p.m.) which will document personalities and events that have shaped our times.

After seeing a special preview of the entire series, we believe that "The Twentieth Century" will prove to be one of the season's outstanding television productions. Covering a wide range of subjects all the way from lives of great men to the development of the automobile . . . rockets . . . brainwashing . . . the F.B.I. . . . the crisis in education, the series of 26 productions are dramatic, exciting and highly informative.

At the preview, we were privileged to meet and talk with Irving Gitlin, from New York, who is director of CBS public affairs. He explained that no expense or effort has been spared to make this an outstanding production, and certainly the programs show extensive and careful research and planning. We were particularly gratified to hear Mr. Gitlin say that there is a "growing trend toward informational programming." We have stressed so many times that television programs can be entertaining as well as informative, and certainly "The Twentieth Century" proves that.

In conjunction with the program, "TV Teaching Aid," an excellent detailed study guide complete with suggested activities and bibliography, has been provided by the sponsor of the program, The Prudential Insurance Company of America, and is available to teachers throughout the nation upon request.

SEWING BY TV . . . . Do you want to know how to cut out a dress, or make a blouse or sew different kinds of seams? Tune to KQED every Tuesday and Thursday at 3:30 p.m. for a professional home sewing course featuring Lucille Rea, former extension clothing specialist at Iowa State college. A study guide to follow the TV programs is available through KQED at a cost of $1:25 for KQED members only and $2 for non-members.

"ROCK 'N RALLY" CHANGE . . . A group of well-known recording stars were only in town for one day, so the program honoring Westmoor High school on KPIX's Rock 'N Rally had to be postponed. Although a group of students from Westmoor did appear on the program last week, students from other schools also participated in the show. The program is now scheduled for Tuesday, October 29.

Indians Deflate Hillsdale For Second Win, 24-14

Serra Next Foe Here

TAPIA PUTS JEFF WITH CONTENDERS

By Roy Hurlbert

Jefferson's stampeding Indians, a surprise outfit which even has all-mighty Capuchino interested, will be favorites for the first time this season here Friday at 3 p.m. when they entertain winless Serra High in a practice game.

All eyes shifted to Joe McGrath's shockers Friday last week at Burlingame as the Tribe streaked by Hillsdale, 24-14, with Paul Tapia passing the Knights dizzy.

Tapia ran his number of TD pitches to 8 as he connected 18 times in 37 shots for 267 yards and 4 touchdowns. Just a week earlier, he buried Westmoor with 4 tosses that went for 6-pointers.

Capuchino Worried?

The triumph over Hillsdale convinced Peninsula scribes that Jeff could be bothersome to unconquered Capuchino when the San Bruno monsters roll into Daly City to face McGrath's air force Friday next week.

Shrewd Joe, certainly one of the better prep coaches in the business, knows that as long as Tapia is sharp with his sky maneuvers the Indians will be dangerous all the way. McGrath, equipped with two first-rate receivers, Gary Ryan and Pete Garcia, is especially proud of his inexperienced line. The forwards, he says, are improving each week, and can't be overlooked for their roles in Jeff's success to date.

The Indians occupy third place with San Mateo in the PL, both squads sporting 2-1 records. Capuchino, balanced better than any team in Northern California, is on top with a 3-0 mark. Burlingame is 2-0.

Cap slaughtered South City last Friday, 41-0. The Mustangs' other victims were Westmoor, 55-7, and San Mateo, 45-0.

Could Surprise

McGrath, who has some usual trickery up his sleeves, may surprise Capuchino. He isn't predicting an upset, but he says, "we can't do any worse than the three teams already clobbered by Cap."

Senior Gary Ryan, the basketballer, was no less than sensational against Hillsdale. Filling in for injured Bob Berry, Ryan hauled in 10 Tapia tosses for a new Peninsula League record. Gary twice hit the end zone on Paul's pinpoint pitches.

With Ryan and Garcia splitting the secondary, Tapia easily outdueled Hillsdale's fine tosser, Keith Mattos. Mattos went upstairs 35 times, hit on 10 strikes, and accounted for one score.

The Indians, slow starting in the first quarter but holding the edge, went ahead by two tallies in the next period.

Message To Garcia

Tapia hit receivers four times on the first drive, a 67-yard march ended by an 11-yard pitch to Garcia.

Next time Jeff got the hide, Tapia hustled his troops again. Sonny Martinez, bad shoulder and all, helped with a 22-yard trip off tackle. Ryan capped the assault by pocketing a Tapia heave in the end zone from the 6.

Hillsdale then came back via a pass interception and 15-yard penalty to move to the Indian 48. From there, Mattos lofted a strike to Kasper, who went the route. It was 12-7 at the half.

The Knights stormed ahead in the third quarter, taking 8 plays to get the job done from the Jeff 38. Mattos plunged over from the 2 to put Jeff behind, 14-12.

Mattos and Kasper clicked again minutes later on a 49-yard play, but the tally was erased as both teams were penalized at the same time, nullifying the play.

Fullback Hirb Dirks got Jeff's third TD going by stealing a Mattos pass on the Jeff 43. Tapia then found Ryan alone in the secondary for 16 more yards. Ryan bluffed defenders on the next play and Tapia crossed the Knights by pitching perfectly to all-alone Martinez, for 41 yards and 18-14 on the scoreboard.

Final Splurge

A 12-yard Tapia - to - Ryan shot, ending a 60-yard march, concluded the scoring later in the final quarter.

Jeff led in first downs, 5-4, and total yardage, 414-223.

Fullback Pat Lena was the leading carrier, netting 64 yards on 11 trips. Martinez galloped for 62 yards, carrying but 4 times.

Lena, who missed the Westmoor game, again is sidelined for the Serra encounter. He dislocated his shoulder Monday and may be out for two weeks. Martinez still isn't up to physical par.

McGrath singled out senior guards Neil Dunsford and Dwayne Cook for fine duty against Hillsdale. He also liked the exceptional work of third-string tackle Jim Drake, a sophomore, who played the whole game on offense. Juniors Jerry Kennedy and Tom Coop shared center chores.

Serra, coached by Paul Braunreiter, doesn't figure to make the Indians sweat. The Padre weakness is pass defense—and Tapia and company are well aware of their potential in the air.

So is Capuchino.

HOTTEST prep passer in Northern California is Jefferson's Paul Tapia. The steady senior, who leads his mates against Serra's Padres here this Friday afternoon, has tossed eight scoring strikes and has piled up more than 600 yards via the airlanes in only two games to date. He's second in total offense for the entire Peninsula League.

Capuchino 'Twins' Lead Peninsula In Grid Scoring

Gene Tagliaferri and Jerry Scattini, Capuchino's end zone twins, are one-two in Peninsula League scoring, according to tabulations released today by the Peninsula Sportswriters Association.

"Tag" is far in front with 6 TD's and 14 conversions for 50 points. Scooting Scattini has 5 touchdowns.

Jefferson's Pete Garcia is fourth with 19 points, and teammate Gary Ryan is tied for fifth with 18 points.

Ryan leads the league with 13 pass catches for 204 yards. Larry Schoenfeldt, hard-running Westmoor halfback, is next with 8 receptions. Garcia leads in most yardage with 226 on 7 pass grabs.

Unbeaten San Mateo Freshmen Rally To Turn Back Jeff, 19-7

San Mato's unbeaten frosh gridsters overcame a 7-6 halftime deficit and went on to post a 19-7 victory over Bob Watt's Jefferson yearlings here last week.

The Indians went ahead in the second quarter on a 50-yard march, with Jim Pfennig rolling the final 5 off tackle. Jim Lufrano ran the extra point.

The Bearcats took the lead on a 50-yard drive midway through the third period.

With less than a minute remaining, the visitors struck their final blow, aided by a 15-yard penalty which placed the pigskin on the goal line.

Watt was missing three flu-stricken starting linemen. Alternate QB Tom McEntee was available for only a few minutes.

The Jeff coach particularly praised the linebacking job turned in by Bob Aita.

Lufrano came off the field minus two teeth.

Jeff entertained winless Westmoor in their Little Big Game this Thursday. Results will be posted next week.

QUARTERBACK RIVALS

Jeff QB Crowds Cap Ace For Total Yards

Paul Tapia, Jeff's answer to Sputnik, is second only to Capuchino's ace Gene Tagliaferri in total offense for Peninsula League games, statistics showed today.

Tagliaferri had picked up 642 total yards, 209 on the ground. Tapia has accounted for 617 yards, all on passing.

For the season, Tapia had a 46 percent pitching average, with 29 completions in 62 attempts. Tagliaferri has a 62 percent mark, hitting 18 for 29. Paul has played in one less game.

Westmoor's Dave Simons, with 22 for 62, is connecting 35 percent of the time.

San Mateo's Bob Devincenzi, third in PL scoring with 24 points, is the leading ground gainer. He has rolled up 307 yards on 37 carries for a 8.3 per crack average.

Jeff fullback Pat Lena is fifth in rushing with 102 yards on 21 trips. Lena missed one league game, however. He has averaged 4.7 yards per carry.

Statistics this fall are compiled by Jim Price and Vince Mager, representing the Peninsula Sportswriters Association.

Ben Franklin, Westlake Park Teams Nail Opening Touch-Grid Triumphs

Benjamin Franklin's sixth graders and Westlake park's eighth grade footballers registered victories Saturday as the city-sponsored touch leagues opened.

The Franklin forces overpowered Westlake school, 38-12, in the lone sixth grade encounter. The victors were paced by Bruce Hix, Jimmy Fisher, John Bennett, John Vocke and Ron Johnson.

Westlake park socked Lincoln playground, 39-0, in a one-sided eighth grade battle. Crocker edged OLPH, 7-6

The parkers were led by Bill Farber's two touchdowns. Others scoring for Westlake were Pete Pollot, Carl Steigerwald, Steve Atell, and Ed Koplowitz. Carroll Aguino, Ron Fonti and Cary Ciolino played well for the Links.

In seventh grade competition, Colma trimmed Community Center, 20-6, as Vic Schuchert and Don Hemasillo invaded the end zone. Vic passed to Don for one tally and romped to two more on his own power.

Joe Kavanaugh and Franklin Welsh smothered a Community Center QB in the end zone for a safety to complete the scoring.

Only other seventh grade tilt found OLPH beating Westlake school (score unknown). The Ben Franklin-Westlake Richfield scrap was victimized by the flu.

Gator, Bronco Soccer Squads Battle Here

Coach Art Bridgman sends his winless SF State soccer eleven in quest of their first victory this Saturday against the University of Santa Clara in a Northern California Intercollegiate Conference tussle. Kickoff is at 1 p.m. at the SFS soccer field.

The Gator kickers in conference play have been downed by City College of San Francisco, San Jose State, and the University of San Francisco conference title holders.

Ineligible Man Costs Westlakers Softball Crown

A board composed of local and county sports officials Monday upheld a protest and made Ralph's Cleaners Daly City's official 1957 adult softball champions.

The Westlake Lodge team was charged with using an ineligible player during the season. The board's decision lowered the Westlakers to second in final loop standings.

Honoring the protest at the meeting Monday was a board composed of Frank Pisa, president of the Northern California Umpires Guild; Owen Kashevaroff, South San Francisco recreation supervisor, and Ed Davenport, commissioner of the Peninsula Baseball League.

San Mateo Runs Over Westmoor

Westmoor's varsity gridders, 1-3 for the season and winless in the Peninsula League, rest on their oars this week with a bye.

Not too badly banged though losing 26-14 to San Mateo here Friday, the Rams are an improving ball club and hope to dent the win column again before the campaign ends.

Pete Matisi took his squad to Serra on Tuesday for a scrimmage session. The Padres, once coached by the Westmoor head coach, invade Daly City this Friday afternoon to tangle with Jeff.

Westmoor should be at full power for their game Friday next week against Burlingame there. End Sid Swanson required stiches over his eye in the San Mateo loss, while fullback Larry Harper sat on the sidelines with a hip pointer.

The Rams almost got back in the ball game for keeps against the Bearcats last week after trailing 19-0 at the intermission. Two heads-up plays—a blocked kick and fumble grab—put Westmoor on the upset trail early in the third quarter.

Guard Steve Robinson first blocked a SM punt on the Bearcat 25. Teammate John White scooped up the hide and fought his way to the end zone for 19-6. Leo Wyrick then ran the extra point.

SM fullback Rich McKnight then fumbled the Larry Schoenfeldt's punt on the 12 and the speedy Wyrick carted the pigskin for the second Westmoor tally. QB Dave Simons went straight ahead for the conversion, and SM was ahead only 19-14.

San Mateo, however, quickly regained composure and marched for the clinching tally late in the third period.

Dash man Bob Devincenzi, the Peninsula't finest one-shot halfback, actually proved the difference. As against Jefferson, the speedster ruined the Rams with two quick TD bursts. He went all the way on sprints of 70 and 35 yards.

Westmoor's big trouble—as always—was slowness on pass defense. The Rams didn't figure to hold down Devincenzi, only powerful Capuchino was able to contain the Mateo cruiser.

Gator Gridsters Host Cal Aggies For 'Homecoming'

San Francisco State footballers will attempt to insure their hold on to the Far Western Conference co-leadership this Saturday afternoon when they play host to the California Aggies here at Cox stadium. Kickoff is at 2 o'clock.

This is the Gatorville's annual homecoming contest. Along with Chico State, the Gators hold a 2-0 record in FWC play.

Joe Verducci's players have gathered their victories from the University of Nevada, 21-8, and the Humboldt State Lumberjacks, 28-14.

The Aggies are in the FWC cellar, having been defeated by Humboldt State last weekend, 25-0, and 21-13 by the University of Nevada Wolfpack in an earlier outing.

The Gators hold a 10-0 1956 win over the visitors. It was this upset that sent the San Franciscans on the road to their three-way tie for the 1956 FWC crown with the Aggies and Humboldt State.

MAINSTAYS for Westmoor's Rams in the Peninsula League varsity race are QB Dave Simons (left) and his left end, Ray "Carby" West. The Rams are idle this week, swinging back into loop play at Burlingame on November 1. Westmoor has yet to win in PL competition, but the locals hold a 6-0 victory over Willow Glen of the South Peninsula League.

Pubmen Leave Basement

Merlo 'Revives' Bowl Buddies

The Marketmen from Brisbane stayed supreme in DC-Colma bowling warfare Tuesday night but the eyes of the loop were on pubkeeper Vince Merlo, the "most determined" kegler in the United States.

Violent Vincente, known as "Aches & Pains" up and down the Peninsula, personally brought his mates out of the cellar with a blazing performance. Merlo posted a 578 series, and his team rolled high game (1003) and high series (2611).

Vincente's outburst gave a top-of-the-hillers a 2-1 split over DC Cleaners. Globe Tavern's sweep plunged Prudential Insurance into the basement.

Brisbane took a 2½ game lead over the pack by trimming Lou Amrofell in two out of three. The iron men from the bayside burg might turn the league into a rout. They are the defending champions.

Bill Flagg, of Vince & Fred's and Eli Black, of Globe Tavern, shared high singles with 224 tallies.

Lone shutout of the night was posted by Thur Meats against Joe's Nursery.

Other results found 2-1 nods notched by Don's Standard Station over 101 Club, Carmona Chemical over Val's Redwood Room, Edisco over United Meats, and Jack's Inn over Giannini Market.

Jeff Lightweights Clobber Warriors

Downing South City by a 37-27 count here Tuesday, Jefferson's 10's basketballers are tied with San Mateo today for first place in the Peninsula League.

Both the Tribe and Bearcat have 5-1 marks.

Mike Orlich's 20's also kept in contention Tuesday with a 34-21 romp over the Warriors. The Indians are 4-2 in loop standings, tied for second place behind San Mateo.

Mike Radioff's 10 points led the 10's past South City. Richie Mortola bagged 11 in the second game.

Indian Jayvees Axe Westmoor's Reserves, 19-0

Vitamin Vic Lewkowitz tossed two scoring passes Monday to lead the Jefferson junior varsity to a 19-0 win over Westmoor's reserves.

Lewkowitb hit Gil Moreno and Irwin Wong with TD strikes, and fellow QB Mike Wills engineered the third scoring march and tallied himself.

The Indians sealed the contest with two touchdowns in the third quarter, after leading by one at the intermission.

Beaten by Capuchino last week, 41-13, Frank Pustay's Indians are 1-1 in JV league standings. Next Monday they host Hillsdale.
